HON'BLE LT. GEN. SANJIV LANGER, MEMBER (A)

ORDER
19.07.2017

In compliance to the order dated 17.07.2017, Mr. Sharma, learned counsel for the respondents hands over two cheques (Rs.10,000/- each) vide Cheque No. 787102 and 787103 dated 17.07.2017 for Rs.10,000/- each in the name of Nancha Ram Jat drawn on State Bank of India, New Delhi to Mr. Bareja, learned counsel for the applicant. This amount is the cost imposed upon the respondents at two different stages for non compliance of the order under execution.

2. Mr. Sharma, learned counsel for the respondents states that since the appeal filed by Union of India impugning the order under execution before the Hon'ble Supreme Court is now likely to be taken up either on 27.07.2017 or 28.07.2017 as ordered on mentioning of the learned counsel for the Union of India (Appellant therein), the instant execution application may be taken up after four weeks thereafter, for the reasons that if for any reason the appeal filed by Union of India is not taken up on the date now fixed on request, it might be considered somewhere in the month of August 2017.

3. Request acceded to. List again on 13.09.2017.
