ORDER
31.08.2022

Even though the respondents have complied with the order, with regard to implementation of our decision in this case, but the concern expressed by us on the last date still remains to be answered. As indicated, there are about 200 cases of execution wherein based on the orders passed by us for pay fixation, benefits have not been given to various applicants and most of them have approached us for implementation of the orders. We direct the respondents to ensure that as has been done in this case, the orders passed by us are implemented in all the cases and a compliance report with regard to all the cases submitted before us within six weeks.

2. As far as the present applicant is concerned, in his case the compliance being reported, nothing further remains to be done, but we keep the present matter pending for seeking compliance of the directions issued by us on the last date and today.

3. List the matters on 31st October, 2022.

A copy of this order be given 'Dasti'.
