MA 1200/2022

Learned proxy counsel for the applicant submits that in spite of her best efforts, she has not been able to contact the applicant as he is not taking up her calls.

2. As per letter dated 21st January, 2023, addressed to AFT, Legal Cell by OIC Records, a copy of which is already on the record of this file, a sum of rupees more than 14 lakhs had been paid to the applicant towards arrears of pension.

3. Learned proxy counsel for the applicant states that maybe the applicant has received all benefits due to him and therefore nothing further survives in this application.

4. In view of the above, the MA stands disposed of.

5. However, if any grievance still subsists, the applicant will have the liberty to take recourse in accordance with law.
