MA 505/2024

Issue notice. Dr. V.S. Mahndiyan, learned counsel for the respondents accepts notice.

2. Shri Ajit Kakkar, learned counsel for the applicant informs us that even though the respondents have issued the PPO in compliance to the order passed by this Tribunal in OA 302/2015, when the applicant approached the Bank along with the PPO for crediting the benefits. As per the PPO, into his bank account, the bank informed the applicant that they have not received any PPO or instructions and, therefore, nothing could be done. If that be so, respondents to show cause as to why the order passed on 24th May, 2019 has not been complied with till date and if the PPO has been issued then why the benefits accruing to the applicant by virtue of the PPO are not credited into his account.

3. Let notice be issued to respondent No. 3 along with a copy of this order asking him to show cause as to why the amount has not been credited to the applicant's account inspite of the fact that the orders were passed in 2019.

4. Respondents also to show cause as to why the costs of Rs. 20, 000/- (Twenty thousand only) has not been paid to the applicant till date and why interest on the amount of costs for the delay in payment beyond six weeks be not now recovered from the respondents and the recovered amount be collected from the officers who are responsible for the delay.

5. Respondents pray for and are granted four weeks' time to file the compliance report.

6. Put up again on 21st March, 2024.

7. A copy of this order be provided 'DASTI' to learned counsel for the parties.
