The present OA has been filed by the applicant claiming herself to be widow of Late Sep. Saket Singh. In counter affidavit the respondents have alleged that name of the applicant is not found recorded under the column Heir to Estate/family pension in the Long Roll maintained by the Grenadiers Records. As per the records the name of Next Kin is recorded as Prem Singh (Brother).

Counsel for the applicant states that it is explained in the rejoinder. However, the rejoinder has been filed by Mr. Mehtab Singh who is son of the applicant. It is stated that the applicant is blind and therefore, rejoinder has been filed by her son. As per the documents available on record, the applicant is blind since 2013. The present OA has been filed in 2016. If the O.A. is filed by the applicant then without seeking permission of the court rejoinder filed by the son of the applicant cannot be considered.

Confronted with the situation the counsel for the applicant seeks time to file fresh rejoinder along with relevant documents. The same be filed within four weeks with copy to the counsel for the respondents.

List on 04.09.2018.
