In the matter of discharge claimed by the applicant from service, today at the time of hearing, respondents have made an oral statement before us that considering the low medical category of the applicant and his unwillingness to continue in service, his case for granting discharge is pending before the Competent Authority and the action would be taken in the matter. Respondents submit that they want to bring on record a subsequent action that is being taken by the respondents, as indicated hereinabove.

2. Respondents may file an affidavit to bring all facts on record within four weeks. In the meanwhile, office is directed to place on record the 2nd counter affidavit filed by the respondent vide dairy No. 8767/2023 before the next date of hearing.

3. List the matter on 5th January, 2024.
