ORDER
23.07.2024

It is stated by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant has expired on 19.12.2022 and in spite of his repeated communications he has not received any instructions.

2. In view of the death of the applicant which is established from the death certificate produced by the counsel, even though, there is a difference in the name of the applicant in the death certificate and the name mentioned in the OA to the effect that the name shown in the death certificate is Devender Kumar whereas in the cause title it is Dewinder Singh, learned counsel for the applicant submits that the death certificate pertains to the same applicant who is before this Tribunal in the OA.

3. Considering the fact that the legal heirs of the applicant have not made any effort to come on record, for the present, the application stands disposed of as having been abated with liberty to the legal heirs to seek setting aside of the abatement in accordance with law.
