ORDER
16.03.2023

Learned counsel for the applicant is directed to bring on record the fresh calculation sheet by way of an affidavit with a copy to learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The calculations which we have observed appear to be incomprehensive as two sets of tables have been incorporated in the calculation sheet. We are unable to discern the formula which has been followed in the case of the applicant. The policy letter by which such revision has been made in the case of the applicant with effect from 01.01.1996 and thereafter need a proper explanation by an authority who is responsible and well versed for the same and forwards it to the Bank, for payment to the recipient. We, thus direct that a copy of this calculation sheet be duly affidavited presented by the applicant be given to learned counsel for the respondents within two weeks from today.

3. Learned counsel for the respondents is then directed to seek necessary instructions with regard to the calculation sheet presented by the applicant and the formula which is to be followed on the basis of whichever policy that is to be adopted by the respondents. We assert that there should be clarity in the submissions made so that the matter is not delayed any further.

4. It would be appropriate and in the interest of both the applicant and the respondents that a responsible officer from the PCDA present himself on the next date of hearing so as to explain the necessary implications of the policy and the formula which has been adopted for issuance of the PPO and payments made to the applicant. Any exchange of pleadings must be made in the meantime.

5. List again on 25th May, 2023.
