ORDER
25.10.2024

The applicant vide the present OA makes the following prayers:-

“(a) To direct the respondents to restore the commuted portion of the pension (Amount of Rs. 6552/- to be restored) w.e.f. 01.10.2024.

(b) To direct the respondents to pay the arrears that had occurred due to non-restoration of commutation of pension.

(c) To direct the respondents to pay 12% interest on the arrears accrued to the Applicant.

(d) To pass any other appropriate order or relief which this Hon'ble Tribunal deems fit and proper anytime during the proceedings of this case.”

2. Along with the same is also a prayer seeking grant of interim relief to the effect:-

“To direct the Respondents to halt the recovery of the commuted amount of pension from the Applicant's pension. The recovery of the commuted pension was supposed to be halted in Oct 2024 on the completion of 11 years and 6 months. The applicant prays for an interim relief to stop the recovery from the applicant's pension as the same is causing huge financial losses to the Applicant and the balance of convenience is in his favor."

3. At the outset, the learned counsel for the respondents has pointed out discrepancies in the synopsis, in the list of dates as well as events in the OA for the date of enrolment of the applicant. Counsel for the applicant seeks time to make the requisite rectification. As and when such application is filed, the matter be listed by the Registry.
