Issue Notice to the respondents both on application under Section 14 of the AFT Act as well as MA for condonation of delay. Notice is accepted by Shri Harish V. Shankar, learned counsel for the respondents. He is directed to file his objections/reply both on merits and with regard to delay within four weeks.

Till the next date of listing, we direct that the status quo in the matter with regard to the issue shall be maintained. The status quo would not mean that the office proceedings had to be stayed. Administrative action on the files can go on but no final decision shall be communication or implemented without leave of the Tribunal.

List the matter on 6th April, 2022.
