Additional affidavits have been filed. There being some delay in filing the additional affidavits, these applications have been filed seeking condonation of delay. Delay condoned. Additional affidavits are taken on record.

MAs stand disposed of.

In O.A 2167/2021, M.A 1528/23 has been filed. Similarly, in O.A No. 1965/2021, MA 1379/2023 has been filed and in O.A No. 2008/21, M.A 1385/23 has been filed. In all these applications, the complaint of the applicants is that pursuant to the remand order passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the information sought for by this Tribunal in the order passed on 07.12.2022, the information has not been given in the manner it is required to be given and as directed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and therefore the applicants are not in a position to present their case properly and argue that the consideration by the appropriate Board and the calculation of vacancies had not been done in the manner it should be done. Various documents which are relevant for addressing the issues which arise now after the remand have not been supplied and therefore, in the applications, the learned counsel tried to indicate as to what are the documents/information they want to effectively put up the matter before this Tribunal. It is also stated that even the material relied upon by the respondents in explanation to the affidavit filed in pursuance of the order passed on 07.12.2022 have not been brought on record. Even though Gp Capt Karan Singh Bhati submitted that the respondents had complied with the order dated 07.12.2022, we are of the considered view that the issue raised in these three applications are to be addressed by us in the backdrop of the requirement of the directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

2. Issue notice to the respondents in these three applications and direct them to file their reply within two weeks.

3. List the matter on 11.05.2023.
