None appears for the applicant and it was informed to us that the counsel representing the applicant is no more available.

2. Keeping in view the same we directed issue of notice to the applicant. Office records indicate that notice was issued on 9th July, 2024 but has been returned unserved with a postal remark dated 15th July, 2024, to the effect that “the applicant is no more available on the address”. Considering the fact that neither the applicant is available nor is he being represented by the counsel, we dismiss the application for want of prosecution.
