Vide order passed on 23rd May, 2022 respondents were directed to produce the original records and the proceedings of the promotion board.

2. Again on 21st February, 2023 they were directed to produce the original records on 28th March, 2023, positively. Thereafter, the matter could not be taken up on 28th March, 2023 on account of non availability of one of the Members of the Bench and the matter was adjourned to 1st May, 2023. Thereafter, when the matter was taken up on 1st May, 2023 the respondent indicated that the original documents as directed, could not be produced and they wanted some more time and accordingly the matter is listed today.

2. Today an oral statement is made and it is indicated that the original documents are not traceable and only copies of the same are available and permission is sought for filing the copies, as directed.

3. Taking note of the fact that this Tribunal has already directed for protection of the original documents the respondents are directed to file an affidavit of a competent officer indicating the facts as to why and under what circumstances the original documents are not traceable. Details with regard to the action taken for tracing the original documents and their non-availability should be indicated in the affidavit and the copies of the same should be brought on record within four weeks.

3. List the matter on 17th July, 2023.

4. Let a copy of this order be provided DASTI to learned counsel for the parties.
