OA 2805/2021

Having heard learned counsel for the parties, we are of the considered view that for the purpose of seeking age relaxation, in accordance to the Government of India, Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions (Department of Personnel & Training) memo No.15012/2/2010-Estt.(D) dated 27.03.2012, petitioner needs a certificate from the respondents to the effect that he has worked in the Indian Army for the requisite years prior to his resignation.

Certificate with regard to the requisite period served in the Indian Army before his resignation was accepted and he was relieved.

2. In our considered view issuance of this certificate for the purpose of taking advantage of the circular of DoPT dated 22.03.2012 will not mean that the applicant is seeking the status of the ex-serviceman, and as contested by the respondents in the counter affidavit. There should not be any difficulty in issuing a service certificate to the effect as prayed by the applicant for seeking benefit of the DoPT circular dated 22.03.2012, i.e., for the purpose of seeking age relaxation.

3. Keeping in view of the above, learned counsel for the respondents is directed to seek instructions and inform us as to what is the difficulty in issuance of said certificate, as requested by the applicant.

4. List this matter on 22nd May, 2024 as PART HEARD.

5. List this matter along with OA 2805/2021 for analogous hearing.

6. Let a copy of this order be provided DASTI to learned counsel for the parties.
