During the course of arguments, learned counsel for the respondents have placed on record copy of the order dated 14.08.2019, whereby the application moved by the applicant for discharge has been rejected on the ground that the applicant has been selected for Group 'B' post whereas the 'No Objection Certificate' was issued for Group 'A' post.

According to learned counsel for the respondents, this rejection order of not granting discharge to the applicant is strictly in tune with the policy in vogue.

Learned counsel for the applicant, however, states that since copy of the aforesaid order dated 14.08.2019 is provided to him today in the court, he may be allowed to amend the relief clause in OA so that he can throw challenge to the said order on the grounds available to him. May do so.
