HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJENDRA MENON, CHAIRPERSON
HON'BLE REAR ADMIRAL DHIREN VIG, MEMBER (A)

ORDER
14.02.2025

This case was heard by us and reserved for judgment on 08.04.2024, however, while going through the records and appreciating the facts of the case and keeping in view certain judgements referred by this Tribunal in the matter of grant of Invalid Pension, which have been approved by Hon'ble Delhi High Court and Punjab and Haryana High Court, the Bench primarily felt that as an alternate prayer, the case of the applicant for grant of Invalid Pension can also be considered and as there was no prayer for Invalid Pension, the matter was listed for taking consent of the applicant or the counsel. Today, the applicant with his counsel are present and they submit that if for any reason whatsoever, the court come to the conclusion that the applicant is not entitled to the Disability Pension, alternatively the applicant would pray for Invalid Pension.

2. Reserved directing for amendment in the application. The earlier prayer is taken note of.
