ORDER
18.10.2024

MA 4194/2023

The respondents have issued a PPO indicating payment to the applicant as per instructions. However, learned counsel for the applicant points out that the arrears have not received and if that be so, we direct the applicant to file an affidavit within four weeks indicating that the arrears have not been paid.

2. We are constrained to pass such an order because on oral instructions in certain cases when we issued notice to the respondents as to why the arrears have not been paid and the PCDA (P), was directed to appear personally. It has come to our notice that even after the arrears were purportedly paid, the applicants were not providing proper instructions to their counsel. Therefore, we insist on the filing of an affidavit by the applicant confirming the non-payment of arrears.

3. List again on 29.11.2024.
