MA 4006/2023

In spite of the order passed on 06.11.2023 respondents have not amended the PPO and incorporated the amendment as was directed on 06.11.2023.

2. In spite of time being granted up to 2nd January, 2024, nothing has been done. The applicant before us is a widow and is claiming liberalised family pension on account of the war injury elements of pension granted to her late husband. It is heartening to note that more than 03 months have since been passed, liberalised family pension to a widow of an officer who had suffered war injury is not granted and amended PPO issued in terms of the order passed on 06.11.2023 and the matter is kept pending.

3. We direct the respondents to issue the amended PPO four weeks from today, failing which, coercive action would be taken against the officers concerned.
4. We direct that the copy of this order be forwarded to OIC records Gharwal Regiment to take note of all the aforesaid, failing which the officer concerned shall be liable to pay costs.
5. Re-list on 26.03.2024.
6. A copy of this order be provided DASTI to learned counsel for both the parties.
