ORDER
29.08.2022

OA (Appeal) 1701/2022

Heard learned counsel for the parties on the question of interim relief.

2. During the course of hearing learned counsel for the respondents had referred to certain Army Orders and judgments. He is directed to bring the same on record along with his objections.

3. In the meanwhile, we are informed that after the evidence is recorded by the Presiding Officer as a manuscript it is typed under his orders, supervision and guidance. The final typed statement of witness is kept for inspection of all concerned and it is only after no objection is raised that the final statement of the witness is signed by all concerned.

4. Keeping in view the aforesaid statement made, for the present, we see no reason to pass any interim order. Respondents are directed to bring on record all relevant material in support of their contention within a period of four weeks. The proceedings of the Court Martial may go on in the meanwhile.

5. List the matter again on 12th October, 2022.

6. Let a copy of this order be provided DASTI to learned counsel for the parties.
