ORDER
07.11.2024

In pursuance of the order passed by this Tribunal on 20.12.2023, it is stated by the respondents that they have filed the medical documents vide Diary No.10554/2024 as directed. However, the same have not been brought on record due to certain defects raised by the Registry. A week's time is granted to the respondents to rectify the defects and bring the documents on record.

2. It is further pointed out by Mr. Rajiv Manglik, learned proxy counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant that although the respondents have filed the medical documents, they have not filed the Court of Inquiry (CoI) report, which was also directed to be submitted. In case the CoI has been conducted, the respondents are directed to bring the report on record. If the CoI has not been conducted the respondents are directed to file a statement on affidavit regarding the status of the CoI within two weeks.

3. List again on 28.11.2024.
4. A copy of the order be given DASTI to both the parties.
