To resolve the dispute at hand, it is necessary to implead the two children who have now attained majority and are not entitled to any pension, as parties. The reason for this is that they were receiving 50% of the pension, and any order passed by this Tribunal will impact their entitlement, potentially denying them the same and awarding it to the applicant. Therefore, we direct the applicant to implead both of them as parties.

2. List again on 03.09.2024.
