Today, during the course of hearing, Mr. Kakkar, learned counsel for the applicant submitted a compilation with regard to various factual aspects pertaining to grant of pre-mature separation to various officers. He has given details of the officers in a tabulated form along with statements indicating the reasons and remarks as to why the officers have been granted PSS. Also available in the compilation are certain questions asked by the Members of Parliament in the Lok Sabha and a statement given by the Minister of State for Defence indicating availability of surplus officers particularly in the cadre of Gp. Captain and Wg. Cdr.

2. As this compilation contains assertion on facts and had been produced today, we direct the respondents to go through the same and give their say with regard to the factual aspect as detailed in the compilation on an affidavit within three weeks.
