ORDER
10.01.2011

This court vide order dated 27th September 2010 directed authorities to consider question of grant of premature release of the petitioner on account of his personal domestic problem i.e. the illness of his parents. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that no reason has been given for denying this request despite the orders passed by this Tribunal. Since it is the discretion of the Government to prematurely release or not to release the petitioner, therefore, we cannot exercise this direction. However, we hope and trust that the Government shall consider the matter sympathetically, looking to the domestic problems of the petitioner i.e. the illness of his parents. We remit the matter back to the Government to consider the matter sympathetically.

With these observations, the application is disposed of.
