Dated: 05.07.2011

Present: Mr. Dinesh Yadav, counsel for the Applicant

Heard and perused the record.

Learned counsel for the applicant states that needful order has been passed and court martial proceedings have commenced. Hence, at this stage, this application has become infructuous. In these circumstances, learned counsel for the applicant does not want to press this application and a request is made that the same may be disposed of accordingly. Learned counsel for the respondents also submits that fresh order has been issued and court martial proceedings have commenced.

Considering the submissions from both sides, nothing remains in the application for adjudication. The application is, therefore, dismissed as become infructuous. No orders as to costs. File be consigned to Record Room.
