ORDER

09.09.2015

The petitioner's short grievance is that the issue of punishment awarded by the Summary Court Martial (SCM) is still existing in his service record, which has now been addressed by the respondents. The respondents have produced the copies of the service records and dossiers which clearly indicate that the punishment of reprimand awarded by the GOC has been set aside. The same correction has been incorporated in the service record and dossiers. In view of this, nothing survives in the petition and the same is dismissed as having become infructuous.
