ORDER
06.07.2023

MA 2367/2023

Having heard learned counsel for the applicant – Union of India, we find that the present application praying for the relief as contained in para 15 (a) of the application is wholly misconceived and the same is accordingly dismissed.

2. The judgment which is sought to be held in abeyance by way of the present application has been passed after detailed appreciation of the records which were produced before us by the respondents during the course of hearing and these were analysed thread bare. It is only after due deliberations and consideration of all aspects of the matter in the case of the present applicant that the judgment has been passed.

3. MA thus stands dismissed.
