MA 3224/2023

The matter has been filed by the applicant on the basis of an error which is said to have occurred in the Order passed by this Tribunal on 28.04.2023 in OA. It is pointed out that in the copy of the order supplied to the applicant his designation is shown as Retired Maj of the Indian Army in the opening part of the order where as he is a retired Col of the Indian Army. However, Office has brought to our notice an error which has occurred on uploading of the order in the website which has been downloaded and copied by the applicant. On going through the Original file of the case, we find that the correct order is already available on record and that was signed by the Members of the Bench in which the applicant is shown as retired Col of the Indian Army in the very first line. In view of the above, the error has occurred in uploading the incorrect copy of the order, which may be ignored and office is directed to supply the applicant, with the correct copy of the order which is already available on record. With this direction to the office the application stands disposed of. The order uploaded with incorrect designation of the applicant be removed from the website and the correct order be uploaded and all concerned be informed accordingly.
