ORDER
20.11.2024

MA 5023/2024

After making certain submissions and faced with the observations made by this Tribunal on merit with regard to maintainability of this application to the effect that even if counter affidavit is taken on record, no difference would be made in the order passed because of the fact that the order has been passed after perusal of the medical records and the opinion of the medical authorities cannot be changed by the pension payment authority and, therefore, learned counsel for the respondents prays for permission to withdraw this application. Prayer allowed.

2. MA stands disposed of.
