MA 5619/2024

This application has been filed by the respondents seeking time to implement the order passed by this Tribunal on 18.09.2024 in OA 1062/2022. However, we find from the records that in pursuance to the directions contained in Para 29 which reads as under:-

“29. In light of the above observation we consider it appropriate that the complaint of the applicant is re-analysed de novo in interest of justice and also in consideration of the fact that the applicant is a war wounded officer who has been transferred to AEC from Infantry. If redressal is granted to the applicant, he shall be eligible for re-consideration by No 3 SB as a Special Review Case.”

respondents have considered the case of the applicant as directed therein and a detailed order passed by the Competent Authority on 19.12.2024 has been brought on record indicating that redressal has not been granted to the applicant as a consequent thereof, for the present, there is no ground for reconsideration of the matter by No.3 SB. The applicant is now required to challenge the order passed on 19.12.2024 rejecting his prayer for grant of redressal.

2. In view of the above, as the respondents have already passed the order on 19.12.2024, we extend the time of three months for passing of the order as directed in Para 29 of the order dated 18.09.2024 up to 31st December, 2024 and dispose of the matter with liberty to the applicant to challenge the order dated 19.12.2024 in case he is aggrieved.

3. MA stands disposed of.
