ORDER
03.09.2025

It is reported by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant has since expired and though he tried to contact the legal heirs of the applicant but he has no instructions to move an application for bringing the legal heirs of the deceased on record.

2. In view of the above, treating the application to have been abated on account of the demise of the original applicant, the OA stands disposed of as abated with liberty to the legal heirs to seek restoration in case they are so advised after filing an appropriate application.
