ORDER
26.03.2025

Making a very innocuous prayer that should have been decided at the administrative level the applicant has approached this Tribunal invoking jurisdiction under Section 14 of the Armed Forces Tribunal Act.

2. The applicant was employed in the establishment of the respondents and after serving from 22.02.1991 to 28.02.2017 was discharged upon completing 26 years of service. According to the applicant in his family details he had indicated the names of his wife, daughter and son. His son's name is "Abhishek", as recorded in the service book available on record at page 21. However, the applicant's grievance is that when the e-PPO bearing number 349201714972 was issued, his son's name was incorrectly mentioned as "Abshiek". It is stated that he has repeatedly requested corrections but the error has not been rectified. Therefore, he has invoked the jurisdiction of this Tribunal seeking correction and issuance of a fresh PPO with the correct name of his son.

3. Without entering into the merits of the controversy and considering the applicant's simple grievance, we direct that upon the applicant filing a certified copy of this order along with relevant documents, the competent authority in the office of PCDA (P) Prayagraj (Respondent No. 4) shall look into the matter and after verification of records pass appropriate orders and issue a corrected PPO reflecting the correct name of the applicant's son.

4. Upon receipt of a copy of this order along with relevant documents Respondent No. 4 shall issue the corrected corrigendum PPO within a period of four weeks.

5. With the aforesaid the matter stand disposed of.
